A short passage from the magazine " Alabama Historical Quarterly "

" A step-son, Catt Smith, went into the ministry some years after the war, and about the time that J. L. Thompson, W. J. D. Upshaw, and Darius MArtin did. He soon displayed fine talent inthe ministry, and his services were in constant demand. While still rising in the scale, and still a young man, he went to Texas and soon had a good rank among her ministers."

**My Note: Catt Smith was not a step son of Bright Skipper, but was a nephew of his. Catt's mother, Edith Skipper Smith, was the sister of Bright Skipper. See Notes under Bright Skipper for the full article as it appeared.

General Notes: Moved his family to Howard County Texas from Van Zandt County in 1908.

Williams Middle name Anslyn may be spelled Anslyn/Anslem.

I believe he a descendant, grandson, to Anslem Evans of Putman Ga. since

Anslem's daughter also ended up in Barbour County, Alabama as William's mother Sophonia Evans did.

Buried South/West Corner of Mount Olive Cemetery.

I can't find "WA" in the 1880 Census at Van Zandt Co., TX.

Notes for Truett Ferrell Smith:

General Notes: The famous "Preacher Truett", Truett was named after, was very powerful in politics and later became surrounded with scandal after he killed his secretary's husband. He was alleged to have been having an affair with his secretary. He continued to minister a large congregation in Fort Worth after the murder. He was not related to this family. The family named their male children after famous ministers is the only connection. Ferrell seems to have come from a wealthy landowner, who lived near the Myrtle Springs area Van Zandt County Tx, that imported many families to the area. It is not known if his influence had anything to do with our families coming to Van Zandt County.
